

ROTKÄPPCHEN-MUMM

Press release

Freyburg (Unstrut), 08.10.2018

Personnel: Hannelore Jankowa is retiring Generational change ahead for Purchasing at Rotkäppchen-Mumm

As part of the long-planned generational change, the Purchasing division at Rotkäppchen-Mumm Sektkellereien GmbH, Freyburg (Unstrut) is recruiting new personnel. After 38 years of successful employment with the German leader in the sparkling wine sector, Hannelore Jankowa, director of central purchasing, will retire in 2019.

From 01.11.2018, Andreas Normann (47) will be in charge of Purchasing as director of central purchasing at Rotkäppchen-Mumm. Meanwhile, Andreas Zenz (39) will enhance the Sparkling Wine and Wine area at the Freyburg-based traditional company as head of wine purchasing from April 2019. Both Normann and Zenz are high-profile purchasing specialists who have gathered comprehensive experience of the FMCG, beverage and wine sectors in their previous posts.

'We would like to thank Hannelore Jankowa, who, with her decades of experience and in-depth knowledge of the international wine sector, has made a constant contribution to the success of Rotkäppchen-Mumm over the course of so many years,' states Christof Queisser, chairman of the Executive Board at Rotkäppchen-Mumm. 'With the introduction of our planned generational change in the Purchasing division, we continue to occupy an excellent position as a reliable and internationally active market leader.'
